

Saturday, May 10th Auditions

5 years old, Kristen – auditioned for Kit's 6 year old sister

We met a number of very nice people with great talent. Here's a picture of Kristen who auditioned for Kit Carson's little 6 year old sister. She was terrific!

I wanted to take a moment and explain a reframing of my plans for the musical. I have restructured the summer rehearsals around specific scene workshops. The purpose is to fully build-out a few of the more complicated scenes. The summer workshops include dance, song and acting and will be organized around scenes for children and scenes for adults. In addition, I postponed the original production dates of August 21, 22 and 23 to a time later in the year when I believe that everything is readied for a great production.

The workshops will be run every Monday and Tuesday evening throughout the summer (see the dates below.) Children and adults interested are required to attend one of the two remaining auditions. They are, however, open to everyone who has theatre aspirations and would enjoy spending the summer with others who share the same passion. There is no commitment to participate in the actual production.

Talent will be assigned to workshop dates specific to the scene that best fits their talent. The actual schedule for specific scenes will be presented at the kickoff meeting on June 9th. Any one scene will meet no more than six evenings throughout the summer.

June 9– 7:00 – 8:45 (all)

Workshop kickoff: scene assignments, workshop schedule (one evening/week/scene)
